

Series: The Names of God

Title: Jehovah-Jireh

Text: Genesis 22:14

Introduction

We have learned that the purpose of man is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever. Life's greatest discovery is realizing that God loves you and wants you to know him.

The names of God in the Old Testament reveal the Person of God to us.

1. Today we will study one of a number of the _____ names of Jehovah.
2. Jehovah is the eternal, self-existent One, the God of _____.
3. The name Jehovah _____ originates from one of the most moving incidents in the Old Testament.
4. The historical account is the story of the last and greatest _____ in the life of Abraham.
5. Every step Abraham's walk of faith has led him to this final _____.
6. Elohim appears to Abraham with an astounding command to offer his only and well-beloved son Isaac as a _____, a burnt offering.
7. Abraham responds with _____ and faith, resulting in Isaac's willing submission and God's gracious provision of a substitute sacrifice.
8. On the way to the place of sacrifice, Isaac asks, "Where is the _____ for a burnt offering?" (Genesis 22:7).
9. Abraham's response is _____. "God will provide Himself a lamb."

10. Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the lad and I will go yonder and _____, and we will come back to you." (Genesis 22:5 NKJV)

I. The God of Provision

11. Jehovah Jirah is the God of _____.

12. God takes a simple and common approach to solve what seemed to be an absolutely _____ situation.

13. From eternity to eternity, Elohim foresees _____.

14. Another word for seeing is _____, which comes from the Latin word video-to see.

15. Jehovah, having _____ of man's sin and need for restoration, makes provision for that need.

16. Mount Moriah would be a constant reminder of the wonderful _____ of Jehovah Jireh.

II. The God Of Deliverance

17. Jehovah Jireh commemorates a great _____.

18. Abraham learned something of God's glorious purpose to save _____.

19. Isaac was Abraham's _____ son, the son so longed for, hoped for, and prayed for, the child of their old age.

20. What a great _____ Jehovah's grace provides, and how unexpected and dramatic!

21. According to the words of the Angel of Jehovah, it is the fullest proof of Abraham's faith and _____.

22. The real lesson of the story is the deliverance of all of us through the provision of Christ as our _____.

23. Just as Abraham is about to slay Isaac, there in the thicket is the substitute provided by _____.
24. What follows is an emphatic confirmation of the _____ to make Abraham a multitude and blessing to the world "because thou you have obeyed my voice."
25. He called the name of the place Jehovah Jireh; not only Jehovah did provide - but Jehovah _____ provide.

III. The God of Sacrifice

26. _____ was God's illustration of humanity under judgment.
27. _____ cannot take away our sins.
28. The deliverance of Isaac teaches us that no human sacrifice is sufficient to atone for _____.
29. God was teaching Abraham that the only sacrifice acceptable to Him is the one He _____ and appoints.
30. This same Mount Moriah would later become the site of the _____ and the center of Israel's worship and sacrificial system.
31. A Jewish interpretation of Genesis 22:14 is, "God will see and choose that very place to cause His _____ to rest thereon and to offer the offerings."
32. Like Abraham, the faithful Israelites must have realized that the sacrifice of animals was only a _____ of something to come.

Conclusion

33. The Mount Moriah of which he spoke saying, "In the mount of the Lord it shall be seen," was the site of Mount _____.
34. As father and only begotten son, Abraham and Isaac are both _____ of Jehovah's full and glorious provision for man's sin and need.
35. On Mount Moriah, Jehovah reveals what He Himself was prepared to _____.

He also reveals the awful cost of providing the sacrifice for sin. Does it break your heart, Abraham, to give up, to slay, yes, by your own hand, as an innocent sacrifice, your well-beloved and only son? Then think of the awful and infinite cost to Me, and what I am prepared to do to save humanity. What Abraham foreshadowed on Mount Moriah was realized when Jesus upon the cross cried, "It is finished."

On Mount Calvary, Jesus gave His life for us! But that's not the end of the story! On the third day, He rose from the grave, and He is alive forevermore. Jesus is the firstfruits of the resurrection. He is the down payment on our eternal life! Like Isaac, all he asks of you is your obedience submission to His will.
